

ST PATRICK'S NEWS

Friday 7th March 2014

St. Patrick's has talent...

Due to circumstances beyond our control we had to hold our annual St. Patrick's day concert this afternoon. The concert was a spectacular success, with singing, dancing, a few jokes and instrumental performances. It is, as always, to see the many gifts and talents of our wonderful children on display.

Many thanks to all who helped with the concert, particularly Miss Savournin, who led the music and the choir. Thanks also to the Friends of St. Patrick's for selling the tickets.

We will be continuing our St. Patrick's celebrations on Monday, beginning with Mass at 9am. Please join us if you can.

After playtime, the annual match between Year 6 and the staff will take place. Staff will be busy practising their rounders skills at the weekend!

CONGRATULATIONS also to the Years 5 & 6 girls football team who WON the Camden School Sports Association Football League. They won the tournament without losing a match, and with help from our fantastic goalie, Matylda, the team did not concede any goals. Well done to Mr Farrimond and Louise Harding for helping to train the team.

Book Club

We will be starting book clubs for children in Years 1 to 6 next week. To join the club you must have a copy of the book by next Friday. You may be able to borrow a copy from a local library, or maybe a friend has a copy. They can also be purchased from local bookshops or Amazon.

Years 1 & 2 - Some Dogs by Jez Alborough.

Years 3&4 - George's Marvellous Medicine by Roald Dahl and

Years 5 & 6 - The Giver by Lois Lowry.

Cardinal Vincent Nichols Reflection of the week

The school playground is a noisy place. It's difficult to hear what anyone is really saying or to hear our own voice. Like Jesus often did, it is sometimes good to be still and listen to God's voice. The more we know His voice, the easier it is to hear Him amongst the different noises that surround us.

Lord Jesus, you speak to us through our minds and hearts. Help us to listen to what you say and to carry your light into the world.
