SPORTS DAY!

Well the weather could not have been worse !

The rain came tumbling down and it was impossible for us to go up to the heath today.

Undeterred, the children had some sports events in school!

There were Olympic fanfares and flagwaving, and promises of effort and fair play.

Potatoes and spoons, beanbags on the head, and throwing balls into baskets all featured in the celebrations.

Mums and Dads and a few other family members too came along and joined in the fun!

Many thanks to all who came and entered into the spirit of the events. Well done to all the winners and well done to all the children who behaved in such a cheerful sporting manner. Thanks are due to all the staff who helped to run the events and special thanks to Mr Farrimond for organising the day.
