MAKING MUSIC!

The children in Year 5 took part in a wonderful project the week before last.

They worked with some musicians from the London Symphony Orchestra and some girls from Camden School on a composition in the style of the composer John Adams.

They then performed the piece at Camden to some of the pupils there and they finally took a trip to the Barbican Centre to watch and listen to the full London Symphony Orchestra rehearsing a piece by John Adams before a major concert that evening at the Centre.

The project was a great success and our children behaved wonderfully, performed splendidly and were an all round credit to the school.

Many thanks to Mr Preacher and Miss Denton for taking the children on the trips and special thanks to Miss Savournin who organised the whole project in collaboration with the Camden Music service.

It was a week to remember that the children thoroughly enjoyed!
